There was an Evans family who lived on Main St. Mrs. Evans was related to Aunt Maryann, her brother Dave was Aunt Maryann's husband. Mrs. Evans also had a daughter Margaret--there was a son too who died very young. I think the daughter Margaret's husband was John (Fish) Evans, Mayor of Taylor at one time, or it could have been her father."

George & Vivian Hughes had a grocery store at 1401 Schlager Street. Dad supplied them with eggs from the farm; that's where we got store-bought groceries when we were kids.
